

"Chinese National Geography" Special Offer

"Chinese National Geography" magazine was firstly published by "The Institute of Geographical Sciences and Natural Resources Research, Chinese Academy of Sciences" and "The Geographical Society of China" in 1950. The circulation in Mainland China increased from 20,000 to 700,000 per month. It becomes the most influential magazine and the best-sell magazine among similar magazines. As more and more people interested in mainland's landscape after the return of Hong Kong to our motherland, the demand for a magazine in traditional Chinese grown bigger until it came out in 2008.
